NEWS, PRODUCT UPDATES & CURRENT INDUSTRY TRENDS | MERIDIAN PRODUCTS

SHIPLAP DESIGNS

One of the industries biggest interior design trends is the desire to mimic the characteristic of shiplap applications in the kitchen. Shiplap is a styling of horizontally mounted staves or beams with a slight gap between them in the manner that evokes the impression of exterior shiplap siding or wood planks. The option "Shiplap Bead" is now available. This option will dictate all of your panels being produced with horizontal graining. You will need to specify your desired groove option and spacing.

BARNWOOD DESIGN

Our Barnwood Species is made to look like salvaged wood taken from repurposed barns. The aged and weathered barnwood is full of character and charm. The look of this material is popular in the Shabby Farmhouse designs of today.

TEAM SPOTLIGHT

GET TO KNOW THE TEAM BEHIND MERIDIAN PRODUCTS

My name is Rico Carrasco and I am the Purchasing/ Plant Manager here at Meridian Products. I began working at Meridian Products 19 years ago in an entry-level position of frame chopper on third shift.

Before I begin the brief history of my employment at Meridian, I wanted to share with you that up to the age of 21 years, I played professional baseball. When I decided not to play ball any longer and apply at Meridian, it was a challenge since I did not have any woodworking experience.

Meridian Products gave me the chance. As I mentioned, I began as a third shift frame chopper and in four months was transferred to color matcher in the mill. One year later I was promoted to supervisor, and five years after becoming supervisor, I was promoted to Plant Manager.

The purpose of my writing today is not to highlight my work experience, but to share with you that hard work and a constant strive for excellence produces many fruits. I have worked for Meridian Products for 19 years, and I know that my longevity here is due to the similar vision/values of the ownership of our company; respect, to improve yourself, to earn trust, to embrace excellence, and to help others. I believe in these core values and want you to know as a customer that this is the team behind the product you receive.

One of the most exciting aspects of my job is reviewing trends and learning about new products. Recently we launched our “Seasoned Grain” offering which gives the wood some deep, rustic style grooves. Seasoned wood – time worn, as nature intended. Seasoned wood is also known as aged or distressed wood and echoes the rough texture and rustic feel of wood that has lived through years of being exposed to the elements.

NEW COLORS

Blackened Cherry (Standard on Cherry)

This process is accomplished using the moderately softer cherry wood species. One black clear (Sealer) coat is applied keeping the wood pores open enough to accept white glaze into them. A final clear coat finishes the process.

Cerused Classic (Appears Best with Seasoned Grain Option)

This finish celebrates the rustic nature of open grained woods coupled with the old-world charm of the cerused look.

Roman Colosseum (Standard on Pine)

This finish creates a cozy, warm look from a worn-away finish exposing a naturally aged wood.

CABINET BOX ACCESSORY EXPANSION

A Angled Cutlery Tray Box

This angled tray is perfect for those “bigger is better” grill masters. The angled cutlery box allows for longer tongs and spatulas to be stored in a closed box while still leaving room for day-to-day utensils.

B Paper Towel Box

Keep your paper towels handy but hidden in this open-face drawer box. The box is designed to have one open accessible role in the front and two more stored behind in a 21” deep box. This helps keep an old countertop eyesore in a quick, usable location while freeing up precious countertop space.

C K-Cup Double-Stacked Drawer Box

Our K-Cup double-stacked drawer box will hold 28+ of your favorite single-serve coffee cups to help keep your counters clear. The lower tray is designed to hold other coffee complements like creamers, sugar, tea, and breakfast bars.

D Hanging File Tray Box

Built-in hanging folder steel frame designed for your office or desk drawer box.

E Charging Docking Drawer Box

Keep your favorite electronic devices charged while spending time in the kitchen. Our box is designed to hold a single tablet and up to three cellular phones and charge them all in one, single location. The box is designed to hide all cords for a simple, clean look.
